

ALMA MATER

By the shores of Owahgena,
Stands our school so fair,
We will always treasure
The love and friendship there,
And strive to keep forever
Her stainless honor true;
Hail thee, Cazenovia
And the gold and blue.

In 1930, a new high school building was constructed in Cazenovia. Since then, each generation that has walked its halls has taken a turn learning, forgetting, laughing, crying, hoping, giving up, making friends, and losing them. Now it is our turn. This is how we've chosen to spend it

Seven Lakers All-Stars

Three members of the Tri-Valley League co-champion Cazenovia Lakers were chosen for the 1975 Tri-Valley League first All-Star team. Four Lakers were picked for the second All-Star team.

Leading Laker rusher Bob Riedl, who carried 145 times this season for 844 yards, was chosen fullback for the first team. The other Laker on offense was guard Jeff Holmes. Jim Brisbin made the first team as defensive tackle. Brisbin totaled 50 tackles and 45 assists this season.

Split end Tim McCarthy and his brother, Mark, at halfback were placed on the second team offense with tackle Doug Coffin. Mark McCarthy was also picked for the second team defense as outside linebacker and Tim McCarthy made the defense as safety. Linebacker Eric Schmidtka, who compiled 25 tackles and 19 assists in the four games he played, was elected to the second team defense.

Although the seven Lakers received recognition for their outstanding play, Coach Sam Volo said the united effort of the whole team was the key to its successful season.

Lakers Tie VVS For League Title

By Linda Herbert

Sparked by fullback Bob Riedl, who ran for 226 yards, the Cazenovia Varsity football team rolled past the Red Wings 26-18 Saturday at Rome Catholic.

The win boosted the Lakers to a first place tie with Vernon-Verona-Sherrill for the 1975 Tri-Valley League championship, Cazenovia's ninth T.V.L. title since 1963. The teams finished with five wins, one loss, and one tie (6-1-1 overall), ahead of Oneida, 4-2-1 (5-2-1 overall).

It was a crucial win for Cazenovia since, at the same time, Chittenango was holding VVS to a 0-0 deadlock, and the Laker win combined with the VVS tie enabled the two teams to share first place and the championship.

Laker Coach Sam Volo expressed excitement about the way things turned out. "The team played as expected. We knew we could win, the boys were confident. They weren't pressed," he said.

The victory and the championship ended the high school careers of 11 Lakers on a bright note: Dave Riedl, Ric Davis, Jeff Holmes, Jim Brisbin, Doug Coffin, Tim Vaas, Steve Armstrong, Dan Eno, Mark McDowell, Steve Riedl and Eric Schmidtka.

FUTURE BRIGHT FOR LAKER PUCKSTERS

The Lakers, who did not gain a victory until their fourth league game January 6, compiled a record of seven wins, five losses, and two ties (7-9-2 overall). Caz finished fourth behind Hamilton, New Hartford and Liverpool in Division II of the Central High School Hockey League.

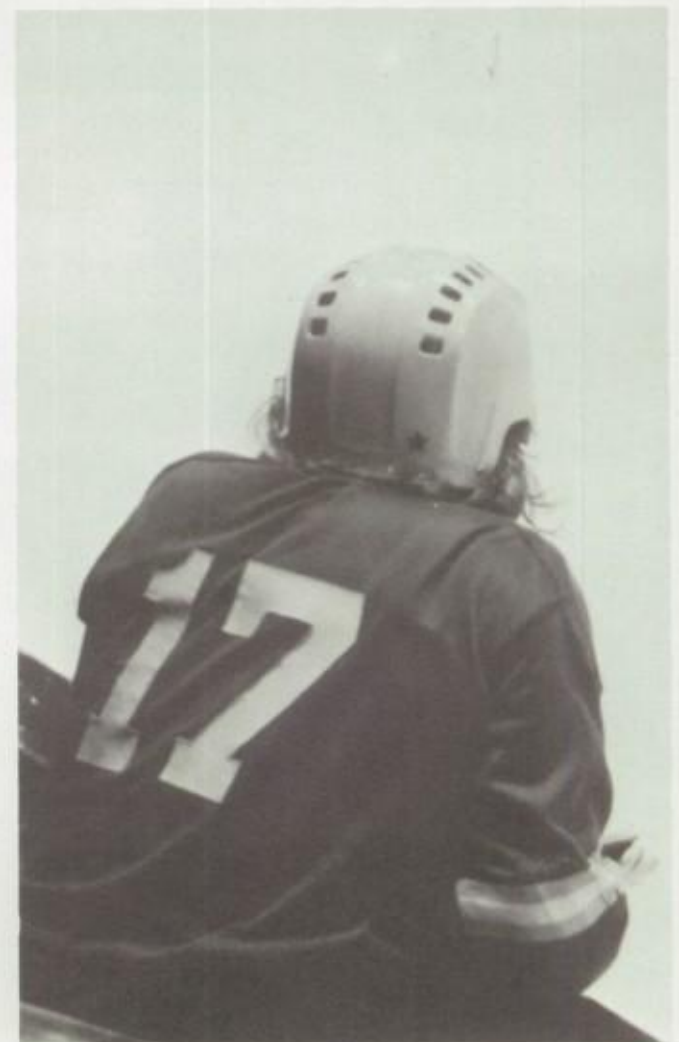

Although the season's final outcome was not as impressive as last season's 13-7-1 record, for a rebuilding year, it was very successful.

CCS Ballplayers End Season 4-11

In spite of a dismal 1975 season, there were some bright spots for the Cazenovia Varsity baseball team. For example, the Lakers had two pitchers, Steve Armstrong and Scott Norton, with an earned run average of under 3.00. The team also had four players who hit .300 or better.

Dale Marris led the Lakers with an incredible .378 batting average for the season. He was followed by Mike Dewan, who batted .367. Steve Armstrong was next with a .348 average, and John Dougherty hit .311.

Dougherty paced the team in runs batted in with a total of nine. Dan Eno and Ric Davis each had seven, Dennis Gregg had six, Dale Marris, Steve Armstrong, Mike Dewan, and Rusty Goldacker had four apiece, and Joe Dowd, Steve Dunne, Scott Norton, and Bill Gabor each had two.

First Year Of Soccer Success

"Dedication to the game and team spirit were responsible for this year's successful season."

That was how Coach Larry Kelsen described the Cazenovia soccer team's spectacular first year. The team finished with a record of six wins, three losses, and one tie.

The team scored 23 goals in 10 games. Mark Altmeyer paced the team with 12, followed by Tony Ledyard with six, John Altmeyer, three, and Dave Laidman and Steve Winslow one each.

DEFENSIVELY, THE TEAM was strong, allowing only 21 goals. Netminders Neal Greacen and Tim Dorman combined for an impressive 2.10 goals-against average.

"We anticipate an even stronger team next year," said Coach Kelsen, "but graduating seniors Tony Ledyard, Tom Favro, and Wayne Roher will be missed."

TRACK AND CROSS COUNTRY

Trackmen Third In Tri-Valley

Cazenovia's Track team finished third at the Tri-Valley League meet May 28 at Chittenango, raising the team trophies this year to four.

Peter Hadley was the champion of the high hurdles in 16 seconds.

THE MILE RELAY of Brad Gouldthorpe, Doug Reddick, Lambert Henry and Mark McCarthy easily defeated seven other teams with the time of 3:35.5 This relay team also won the Class B Sectionals, establishing a new school record of 3:32.1.

Tim McCarthy established a new school record of 6'3" in the high jump, but lost first place because of misses.

Other second places were recorded by Lambert Henry in the 440, Jim Brisbin, discus, and Peter Eckberg, triple jump. Doug Coffin placed fourth in the shot-put and discus.

THE 880 relay team of Dennis Davis, Dave Hill, Greg Butler and Thor Ritz finished third. Dave Hill was fourth in the long jump as was Peter Hadley in the 330 yard hurdles.

Cazenovia recently defeated Canastota 120-21, recording 16 first place positions.

Linksmen Triumph

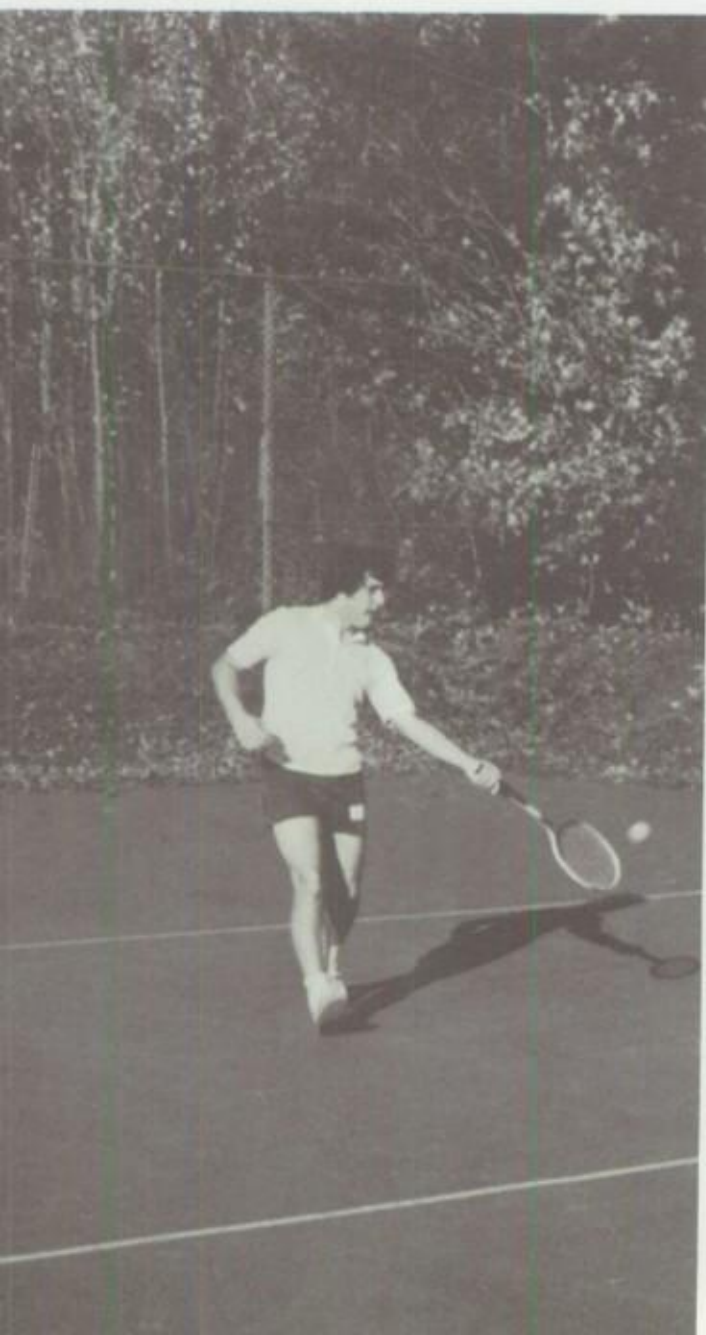

The Cazenovia Varsity Golf team completed Tri-Valley League play with back to back victories over neighboring Chittenango last week. The Laker linksmen turned back the Bears 218-232 at Rogue's Roost and 208-240 on the home course, Cazenovia Country Club.

Individual scores included Ken Mahoney with a 36, Mark Englert, 37, John Churchill, 39, Jeff Holmes, 41 and Dave Riedl, 44.

SCORES IN THE first Chittenango match were Mark Englert, 39, Bob Daggett, 42, John Churchill, 42, Jeff Holmes, 43 and Ken Mahoney, 47.

The Lakers turned what first appeared to be a rebuilding year into a very successful season, coming within one stroke of a third consecutive Tri-Valley League championship. They tied Holland Patent, eventual league champ, in the first match of the season, and lost in the tie breaking process. Holland-Patent finished the season 12-2.

Girls End The Swim Season

The CCS girls' swim team wrapped up its first season with a 0-3 record last week.

In the first meet October 17 with Liverpool, Jill Lerman placed second in the 50 yard breast stroke in :41, and Linda Nelson, 34 seconds, placed third in the 50 yard freestyle.

There was noticeable team improvement in the next meet at Jamesville-DeWitt. Karen Eager placed third in the 200 yard freestyle with 2:58. The medley relay team of Linda Nelson, Anne Ridings, Jill Lerman and Jan Dreisbach was third in 2:43. Jill Lerman and Mary Munro placed second and third with times of :40 and :42 in the 50 yard breast stroke. Trisha Hudelson placed third in the 50 yard freestyle in :31.

THE FIRST HOME meet was against Fayetteville-Manlius. Eileen Koglmeier, Mary Munro, Anne Ridings, and Trisha Hudelson were third in the 200 yard medley relay at 2:39. Jill Lerman won the 200 yard freestyle with a 2:41. Trisha Hudelson was second in the 50 yard freestyle with :32. Carol Ayer, Karen Eager, Jill Lerman and Jan Dreisbach took second in the 400 freestyle relay.

The season's end was marked by a "fun meet" in which the junior high girls defeated the senior high girls 70-68. The seniors swam with several handicaps. They had to wear T-shirts and stockings, and they were not allowed to swim their best stroke.

The Liverpool AAU held a swim clinic for the Caz team with in-the-water demonstrations, movies, and stroke improvement tips.

Caz now has an opportunity to organize an AAU team if the college pool can be rented.

The silence of the room lay heavy upon me, like chains upon my mind. The room was warm in a most suffocating manner. The heated air filled my lungs and numbed my brain with sleepy thoughts. Outside the closed and frosted windows, the snow fell in soft and icy swirls. I longed to open the window, and smell the snow, and feel the frosty wind upon my face, and wake my mind. But I knew if I did They would stare at me in mute complaint, perhaps one of them would drop their pen.

The silence suddenly was filled with the innate sound of a pencil scratching against blue-lined paper. At first the music of the pencil was etched out sharp and clear upon the silence. But soon the rhythmic scratching blended with the hum of the heater and became a part of the silence.

It was not a silence of sound but a silence of voices. No human voice was heard upon that heated air, no laughter, no conversation; it was as if we, I and they, did not exist. I could see them and they could see me, but She could see all and allowed nothing to pass between us. And so we became little islands of boredom upon a sea of silence.

Beyond the open door others passed in the hall. Their footsteps and voices echoed into the room and faded into silence as they passed. How I envied their freedom.

Time was all there was beside the silence. It hung in the air like the heat, motionless and empty. It stood fixed upon the clock refusing to move under my watchful eye.

To pass the time I studied the obscenities and art left by those before me. Carved into the timeworn wood was an expression of what they could not, would not, say upon the heated air.

The Bell, a shrill and rude awakening, the long awaited moment, sneaks up unsuspectedly, and shatters now the silence.

The welcomed sound of the voices and laughter falls upon my ear. In a frenzied rush of movement I join the others in the coolness of the corridor.

me tips on how to ok your best.

GIRLS

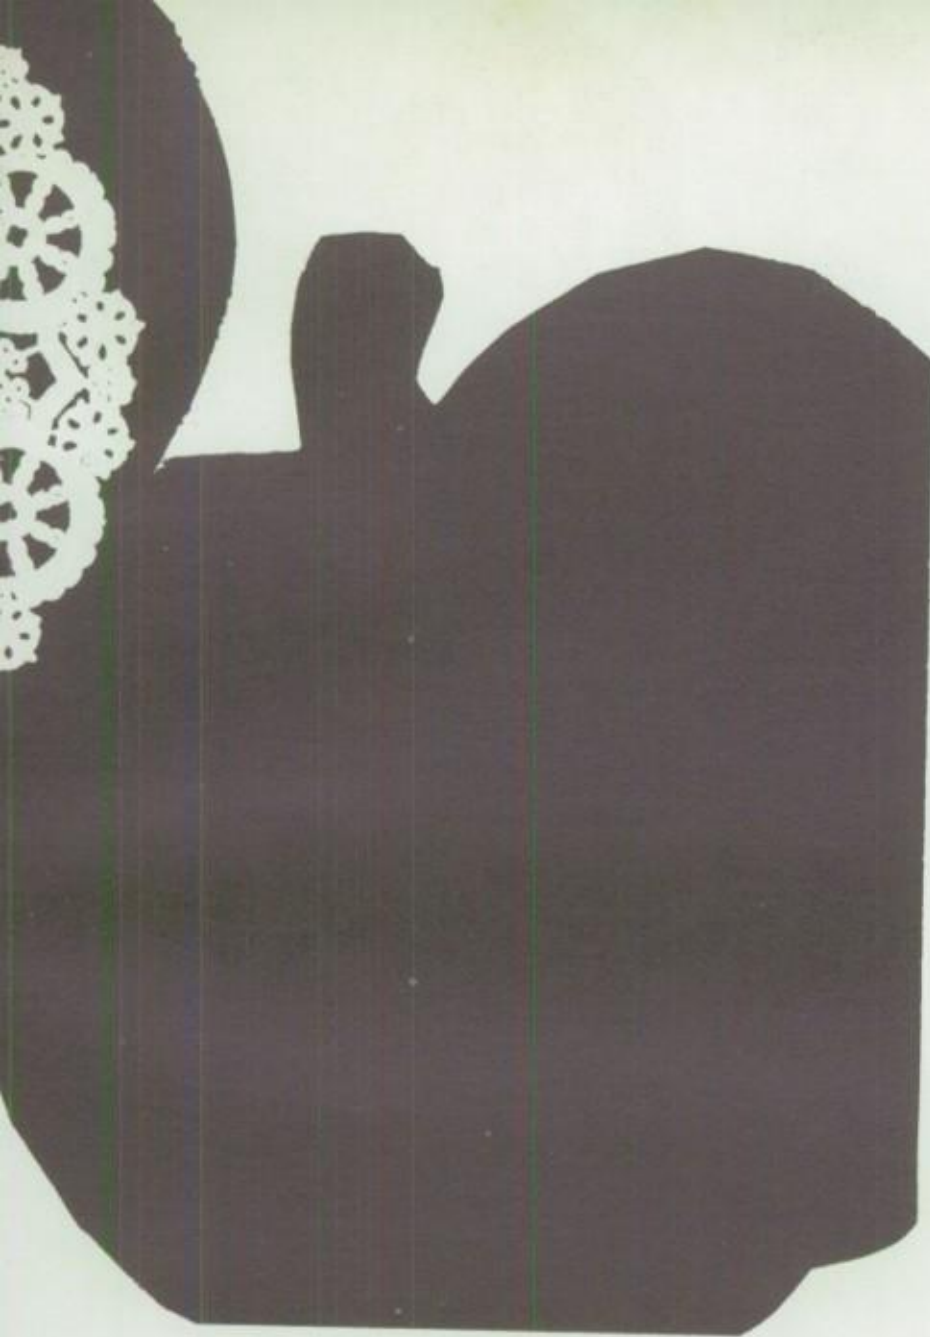

Apply foundation make-up evenly and naturally to achieve that wholesome look. Brush your hair neatly (don't wash it that day) and use a little spray to keep it smooth.

YOUR CLOTHES: Look bright - You in Natural Color - Not too bold, not dark - Nice medium tones.

BOYS

Wear a suit coat or sport jacket in medium color if at all possible. may wear patterns or prints if you select a fresh shirt with a well collar and a tie to harmonize. your hair nicely groomed and shaved that day.

Sculpture Contest Theme

Bicentennial Winter is the theme of the Snow Sculpture Contest that will be held during the 1976 Cazenovia Winter Festival February 13-14.

THE CONTEST will be in two parts; one category for high school students, and one category for Cazenovia residents.

A perpetual trophy will be awarded to the winning high school class; cash prizes of $10, $5 and $3 will be given to community winners.

SNOW SCULPTURES should be completed by Friday, February 13 and the Winter Festival Committee should be notified of locations. Snow will be trucked to the Green in front of the high school for the school competition.

The sculptures must reflect the Bicentennial theme. Awards will be presented at the Saturday night Winter Festival Ball at the Lincklaen House.

For information call Jerry Favro, chairman of the Winter Festival Committee, 655-3698; Mrs. Stephan Burrell, 655-8588, or Mrs. Helen Tobin at the Lincklaen House.

Our turn is just about up.
We will leave —
but the school,
despite the scribbling on the walls, new additions, and many layers of paint, will go on.

We all privately know what we're given or taken from our experience here, but what seems to matter most is that we've, for a short time at least, been a part of it all ...

When we leave thy friendly portals
We will backward gaze,
Memories will take us
To happy high school days
And give us strength and courage,
Through all Eternity;
Hail thee, Cazenovia
Hail, oh hail to thee.

Coye-Fink
